

Schools Art Workshop Paintings Put Up in JK Lon Hospital

2017-07-21 05:50 by Victoria Singh

Eigh paintings put up

Eight acrylic canvases painted at the Schools Art Workshop in January this year were finally hung in J.K. Lon Hospital, Kota on 19th July 2017. Four are in communal areas used by patients' families and four in the new Thalassemia Ward. The current ward is small, crowded and dreary. The families were very excited that the new bright, more spacious ward should be ready for their next visit.

-

-

-

-

